HOW IT WORKS

Our Group Menus are designed and prepared to be shared between every 4 people.

If the group size is not a multiple of 4, a proportional share of both food and drink will be served. Two dishes and one drink per guest, to choose from the menu itself; if wine or sangria is chosen, one glass per person will be served.

Dishes are brought to the table as they come out of the kitchen, in no particular order, always to share. Drinks are included from the start of the meal. Any drinks consumed during the wait beforehand are not included and must be paid separately.

Confirmation of any Group Menu for more than 8 guests will be made with a deposit of at least €10/person.

The bill will be issued as a single invoice and will not be split per person. No dish or drink may be substituted for one not appearing in the chosen Menu.
